

Retailers Report Better Business As Men Get Work

Appleton Merchants Report Sharp Increase in Volume of Trade After Depressing Business the First Three Months of 1922.

By E. L. Madisen

Retailers in Appleton experienced their business crisis during the first three months of 1922, passed over the crucial period safely and now are on the upgrade to a healthy trade condition. Sales began climbing in April and made vigorous and satisfactory gains in May. This trend is expected to continue right through the fall and most merchants expect to find their affairs in excellent shape when the year 1922 draws to a close.

People appear to have taken a change of heart, the merchants say. They have gotten over their "buying strike" since the rapid drop in prices stopped and have resumed their purchasing of clothing, home furnishings and equipment. They have become conservative, however, abstaining from acquiring the most expensive things the merchant might offer and demanding reasonable prices for substantial goods.

MORE EMPLOYMENT
Improvement in employment conditions has had much to do with the resumption of trade in stores catering to the working population. Mills are absorbing more and more men and there is a good demand for craftsmen and common labor in view of the building and construction operations prevalent here. The result is that no man need be idle if he really wants to work. With everybody receiving the weekly pay envelope, this money flows into the stores and helps business.

There is every indication that the farmer will be able to increase his buying power this fall. Crops look as good as they have been at any time. Costs of production on the farm have been lowered so they are more in keeping with the lower price level for grain, produce and milk, and a good income from the full harvest will be the biggest help the farmer has had to overcome the low he suffered when prices went topsy-turvy. This group of consumers already has started buying more liberally, and is less cause to be uneasy and is regaining the confidence of normal times.

Perhaps nothing lends more encouragement to those awaiting the "good old days" than just this state of affairs. It is a condition that exists right in Appleton rather than in some distant industrial center. The ultimate consumer is the man who is coming back, so to speak. Merchants have been awaiting for him to regain his confidence. This, they believe has been accomplished with the majority and the return of buying is reflected all along the trade channels to the manufacturing plant that gives the man his employment.

BOTTOM IN MARCH
March might be termed the darkest month in the retail history here. Business held up well all during 1921 but slowed down considerably in January, after the holiday trade was over. Conditions grew worse in February and in March the volume was alarmingly small. Merchants kept a stiff upper lip, however, and the revival began in April. One store had the biggest business in its history in May and one or two others exceeded their sales of a year ago during the month.

It is believed by some tradesmen that the present stability of prices has been a helpful factor. People found the price standards by which values had been judged disappearing as the market rose during the years of inflation. The rapid dropping also deprived them of a basis of judgment. They had no idea what a fair price for an article should be. But the slashing of prices ended sometime ago, indicating that the bottom had been reached in many lines. A new basis of values therefore formed itself and purchasers now are able to judge whether the article is worth the price asked. Dry goods men say prices in some lines may still go lower but this will be gradual. There has been slight increase in prices of cotton goods, rugs and a few other articles. Freight rate reductions may help lower living costs where this is a big item in cost, but there are commodities on which the drop will have little effect.

LOOK FOR IMPROVEMENT

ARMY BILL TO CAUSE FIGHT IN CONGRESS

By Associated Press
Washington — A determined fight between the senate and house before agreement is reached on the size of the army to be provided for in the appropriation bill for the next fiscal year was in prospect Saturday following its passage by the senate with increases over the house figure in both enlisted and officer personnel.

As put through the senate late Friday the bill carrying an appropriation of $441,750,000 fixes the size of the army for the next year at an average of 12,580 officers and 138,000 men, comparing with the house figures of 11,000 and 115,000 respectively.

FEAR PILOT OF NAVY BALLOON LOST IN WILDS

Lieut. Reed Unaccounted for—Believed to be Lost in Canadian Wilderness

By Associated Press

Chicago—Lieut. W. F. Reed, naval balloon pilot, whose gas bag is the only one unaccounted for in the national race which started at Milwaukee Wednesday, either is lost in the wilds of Canada or has met with some serious accident, in the opinion of government weather bureau officials and aviation authorities here.

These officials explained that it is impossible for the naval balloon to be in the air now, it must be on the ground some where, but whether it was brought down safely is not known.

Weather officials expressed the belief that Reed had followed in the path of Major Oscar Westover whose army balloon reached Lake St. John. In this case Reed now would be somewhere in the wilds of Quebec, probably far from any town and possibly lost—provided he has met with no accident. Weather conditions in Quebec now are said to be stormy and unfavorable to any persons traveling on foot without proper equipment. The naval pilot, head of the navy school of Meteorology at Pensacola, Fla., is a former weather bureau official and is making his first national race flight. In balloon races the pilots frequently land in a wilderness and have been lost almost two weeks at times.

SIGHT BALLOON OVER LAKE
Erie, Pa. — A balloon carrying a bright light and flying several hundred feet above the waters of Lake Erie, passed over the lake several miles off shore late Friday night, according to persons who observed. A heavy mist made it impossible for the observers to find any markings on the gas bag. Coast guards Saturday were keeping a close watch along the lake front in hope that they might locate Lieut. W. F. Reed, the United States navy balloonist in the international race, who was still missing Saturday.

ULSTER BORDER REINFORCED BY BRITISH TROOPS

Troop Ships With English and Scottish Regiments Land in Belfast Harbor

By Associated Press

Belfast — The British forces in Northern Ireland were reinforced Saturday by the arrival of 12 officers and 97 men of other ranks of the Royal Air Force. They were followed by 12 fighting planes.

A battery of howitzers was also landed. Their destination is believed to be Enniskillen, near the southern border of County Fermanagh, where there is much military activity.

Several troop ships bringing English and Scottish regiments also entered the harbor Saturday. The military in Fermanagh are commandeering automobiles and boats and it is believed that the recapture of the Belleek salient recently seized by Irish Republican army forces is contemplated.

The twelve Bristol fighting planes will be flown over the England Saturday afternoon, and will be quartered at Aldergrove, 18 miles from this city.

The crown forces are gradually replacing the Ulster special constabulary men who have been on duty along the border, and the latter are returning to police work.

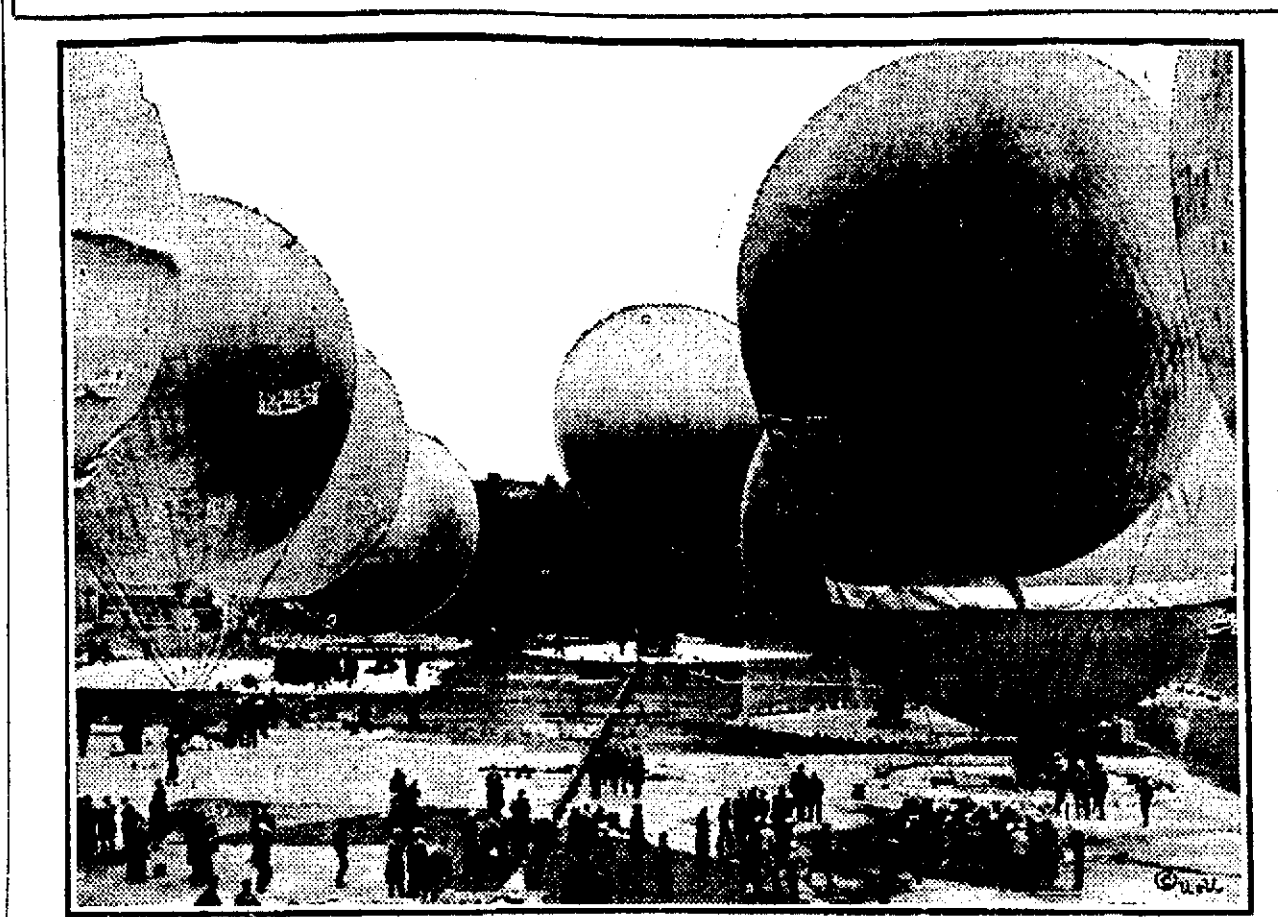

The arrival of two British destroyers at Belfast is reported in a despatch to the Central News.

TRAINMEN INDOORSE SEN. LA FOLLETTE

Cleveland—Unanimous endorsement of Robert M. La Follette for reelection as United States senator from Wisconsin has been recorded by the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, who held their triennial convention in Toronto recently, according to an announcement of W. G. Lee, president, at his office here.

The brotherhood declared that Senator La Follette "has always stood by the common people and always been considered a tried and trusted friend of labor and the common people, and has vigorously denounced and opposed restrictive and oppressive legislation."

MOTHER CONSENTS TO MATHILDE'S MARRIAGE TO MAX

Prospects Brighten as Mrs. McCormick Withdraws Petition for Restraint

By Associated Press

Chicago—The court fight against Mathilde McCormick's international marriage to Max Oser ended abruptly in less than two minutes' proceedings in probate court Saturday when Mrs. Edith Rockefeller McCormick, the girl's mother withdrew her petition for a restraining order to prevent Mathilde's marriage to the Swiss horseman.

Judge Henry Horner granted the motion of Mrs. McCormick's attorney, Charles S. Cutting, that the petition be dismissed without question and added that Harold P. McCormick, divorced husband of Mrs. McCormick, would be appointed Mathilde's legal guardian without further delay. He made it plain however that he would expect the father to execute his trust "as a guardian and a parent should" and that he would also expect Mr. McCormick to "take into consideration all the points in Mrs. McCormick's answer" which was interpreted as a warning that Mr. McCormick should consider very carefully any consent to Mathilde's marriage to Oser.

FEAR RACE RIOTS; MEN GUARD STREETS

Expect Black Uprising to Follow Attempts to Arrest Negro Boy by Marshall

By Associated Press

Kirvin, Texas—Race riots of a serious nature which were reported Friday night as being feared near here had failed to materialize Saturday. Armed men guarded the streets of Kirvin and a house occupied by Negroes near Shiner, about five miles from here, but according to the peace officers little further trouble was expected.

The reports of a riot followed attempts of the city marshal of Kirvin, Otis King, and a deputy sheriff, to arrest Le Roy Gibson, a Negro. Gibson is said to have tried to escape and was shot and captured. As the officers started to their automobile shots were fired at them and they returned at the fire. Allie Gibson, a brother of the prisoner, was killed. The prisoner is said to have grabbed one of the officers and then was killed. None of the officers was injured.

The most prevalent report was that about 75 Negroes heavily armed had barricaded themselves in a large house or a farm. Investigation failed to disclose them in the house.

And Now, Girls, They Want 'Em Made Longer

By Associated Press

Decatur, Ill. — Hair dressers, wearied from snipping off long tresses, are resting now for the reflex—trying to make them look long again.

Resident manager of the national convention of hair dressers, most girls are tired of bobbed locks. The convention will be held in St. Louis in July and series of medals will be offered for ingenuity in methods of getting long graceful roll effects, she said especially for wear with evening gowns.

"Knickerbockers" may be worn, the mayor has decided, provided the wearers conduct themselves becomingly on the streets.

REFUSE TO SHOW PAPERS RELATING TO STEEL MERGER

Head of Kuhn Loeb Company Says He Did Not Consult With Morgan on Merger

By Associated Press

New York — Mortimer L. Schiff of Kuhn Loeb and Company, Saturday declined to produce documents relating to the Republic-Midvale-Inland steel merger, which the Lockwood legislative committee ordered him to turn over to them. His refusal was based on a claim that the papers were private documents which the committee had no power to acquire.

When Mr. Schiff sought to qualify his refusal by saying he would consult counsel about the advisability of complying with the request, Samuel Untermyer, counsel for the committee, asked if he would produce the papers if directed to do so by the committee chairman.

"I won't decline, and I won't say 'yes' was the reply.

The papers merely dealt with matters of a private nature—earnings of the companies in the proposed merger and such subjects, he said.

In negotiating the merger, the witness declared, he had not conversed with J. P. Morgan or made any inquiries whether the merger would be agreeable to him or to the United States Steel corporation.

DISMISSES RAIL COMMISSION SUIT

By Associated Press

Milwaukee—Federal Judge F. A. Geiger Saturday dismissed a suit against the Wisconsin railroad commission and thereby upheld the law authorizing the commission to fix railroad rates. The suit was brought by the Chamber of Commerce of Menominee, Mich., and was dismissed on a motion of the commission.

"If Judge Geiger had granted the injunction asked by the Menominee chamber of commerce the railroad commission would have been powerless to fix rail rates," Ralph M. Hoyt, deputy attorney general, said.

Recently the commission reduced by 20 per cent the interstate rate on coal. The chamber of commerce brought an action against the commission to enjoin it from enforcing the new rate, contending that it was discriminatory against Menominee coal shippers. These shippers, the chamber contended, could not compete against Wisconsin shippers if the rate was maintained.

Mr. Hoyt, who argued the case before Judge Geiger, Saturday contended the court had no jurisdiction.

NAZIMOVA APPEARS IN VALENTINO'S TRIAL FOR BIGAMY

Charge That Movie Star and His Bride Wore Pajamas in Public is Denied

By Associated Press

Los Angeles—Alla Nazimova, Russian actress, was a prospective witness Saturday at the preliminary hearing of Rudolph Valentino, film actor, on a charge of bigamy.

Mme. Nazimova was said to be the original of a photograph introduced into the record Friday as that of a member of the Valentino wedding party at Palm Springs, Calif., after the ceremony between him and Winifred Hudnut at Mexico City, May 13. When that testimony was adduced the state began a search for Mme. Nazimova with the hope it would be able to place her on the witness stand.

Cross examination has brought out the assertion that Valentino and his bride did not wear purple pajamas during their stay at Palm Springs as stated in direct testimony. This declaration came from Paul Ivanichewitch, a friend of Valentino and lessor of the cottage the latter and his bride occupied at Palm Springs.

"They wore Chinese silk clothes," said Ivanichewitch, "and Valentino's were white—not purple."

Valentino is accused of having committed bigamy through living with Miss Hudnut after a marriage ceremony performed before a final decree of divorce was granted him.

UNVEIL STATUE OF FAMOUS INDIAN MAID

Savior of First Jamestown Colony Honored at Jamestown Island Ceremonies

By Associated Press

Newport News, Va.—The tribute of a nation to the Indian maiden who saved from "death, famine and utter confusion" the first struggling colony of white men from which it has sprung—the William Orndway Patridge statue of Pocahontas—drew grateful Americans from many states Saturday to attend the unveiling ceremonies on the historic ground of Jamestown Island.

Conducted under the auspices of the Pocahontas Memorial association, the picturesque feature of the unveiling program was the group of little girls, tracing descent from the famous Indian maiden who were selected to draw the curtain from before the monument representing the girl's figure of the protector of Jamestown colony standing with arms outstretched in welcome to the white settlers.

G.O.P. IS GLAD TO DROP PROBE OF DAUGHERTY

Investigation Amounted to Vote of Lack of Confidence in Attorney General

LAY BLAME ON DEMOCRATS

Democratic Leader Points Out That G. O. P. Congressmen Called for Probe

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Copyright, 1922, by Post Pub. Co.
Washington — Republicans at both ends of Pennsylvania avenue are breathing easier Saturday as a result of the vote in the rules committee of the house of representatives whereby the resolution to investigate Attorney General Daugherty's record in prosecuting war frauds was dropped.

The truth is the Republicans embarrassed themselves. It was by a narrow margin that the resolution to investigate a member of the Harding cabinet was reported favorably and it was by the vote of Chairman Phil Campbell of Kansas, Republican, that the measure carried in committee. This was tantamount to a vote of lack of confidence in a member of the president's official family for it is most unusual for the party in power to investigate the record of one of its own number in the executive branch of the government.

For three weeks there have been some hectic discussions in the inner circle of the administration and Mr. Campbell's vote has been a constant subject of criticism. Even the Democrats who are not particularly concerned with the proper conduct of Republican politics have called Mr. Campbell's action a "political blunder." They were even more amazed however to see Mr. Campbell suddenly reverse himself and vote to squelch the resolution. The reasons he gave for his change provoked the general debate and not the actual vote for the Democrats are not a bit anxious to see the investigation of war matters resumed as they feel that the Graham investigation committee did all it could to find flaws in the war record and relatively speaking accomplished little.

BLAMES DEMOCRATS
When Mr. Campbell claimed that he was dropping the resolution to investigate the attorney general's record because he believes the attacks were inspired by the Democrats, Representative Garrett of Tennessee, Democratic leader couldn't help pointing out that the Graham investigation committee was created by the Democrats. They were even more amazed however to see Mr. Campbell suddenly reverse himself and vote to squelch the resolution. The reasons he gave for his change provoked the general debate and not the actual vote for the Democrats are not a bit anxious to see the investigation of war matters resumed as they feel that the Graham investigation committee did all it could to find flaws in the war record and relatively speaking accomplished little.

The action of the committee followed discussions of differences in the offer as made by Mr. Ford and the model proposal evolved by the committee after inquiry into the offer of the Detroit manufacturer and others. Complete agreement was reached by the committee members and representatives of Mr. Ford on the fertilizer provisions which had been in dispute. The committee in deciding to report the offer to the house complied with the request of Mr. Ford that the house, itself, be permitted to vote on acceptance or rejection of his offer.

What action Mr. Ford might take in the matter should the house vote to accept the recommendation of the committee for elimination of the Gorgas plant, was problematical.

WHITE SOX OWNER TO GET SUBPENA

By Associated Press

Milwaukee—Judge John Gregory in circuit court Saturday handed down a ruling denying the motion of Attorneys for Oscar "Happy" Felsch to have Charles Comiskey, owner of the Chicago White Sox and his son Louis appear in Milwaukee under the discovery statute for examination in connection with a suit in which Felsch seeks damages resulting from his expulsion from organized baseball as well as alleged back salary and bonus.

The judge's decision states that no subpoena was served on the persons whose examination was sought.

Council for Felsch announced Saturday that he would not make an appeal from the court's ruling but that he now intended to serve a subpoena on Charles Comiskey, who is now said to be at his summer camp in Vilas county, northern Wisconsin.

DISMISS SUSPECT IN VAN ORDER CASE

By Associated Press

Madison, Wis.—Charges against William P. Throl of assault and robbery, in connection with the shooting of William Van Order, Appleton salesman, were dismissed by Judge A. C. Hoppmann in Dane county superior court Saturday, on the ground of lack of evidence.

Witnesses at the preliminary hearing in the case have been unable to identify Throl as the man who shot Van Order on the night of May 15.

Mr. Van Order, who was shot and seriously wounded while seated in an automobile in front of a friend's home in Madison, still is in a hospital in Madison. Mrs. Van Order, who lives at 525 Washington-st., said Saturday she is resting comfortably and is well. She came time before he leaves the hospital. Surgeons said after the shooting the bullet had lodged in Van Order's lung.

WANT BIG CROWD TO HEAR FAMOUS SPORTSMEN HERE

Every Person in Appleton Is Invited to Attend Sportsmen's Roundup

Appleton Chamber of Commerce Saturday gave its indorsement to the sportsmen's roundup here Monday evening and is urging every member to attend the banquet and the program which follows. The banquet will be in Eagle hall beginning at 6:15 and the program starts at 7:45. Emerson Hough, William Dilg and Dr. Preston Bradley are the speakers. The local committee in charge wants an attendance which will fill the hall to the doors. The members feel the three visitors are deserving of all the attention which Appleton can give them. All three are marvelous orators with splendid messages. Dr. Bradley, it is said, ranks with the best speakers in America. Every person in Appleton is invited to attend the program.

AGREEMENT ON FORD OFFER IS REACHED

House Committee Recommends Adoption of Offer—Gorgas Plant Eliminated

By Associated Press

Washington — The house military committee voted Saturday to report the Ford proposal to the house and recommend its adoption. Recommendation, however, will be made by the committee in reporting the Ford proposal that the Gorgas Steam Power plant which is sought by the Detroit manufacturer be eliminated from the properties disposed of by the government.

The action of the committee followed discussions of differences in the offer as made by Mr. Ford and the model proposal evolved by the committee after inquiry into the offer of the Detroit manufacturer and others. Complete agreement was reached by the committee members and representatives of Mr. Ford on the fertilizer provisions which had been in dispute. ## COUNTY ASYLUM AT GREEN BAY BURNS

By Associated Press

Green Bay, Wis. — Fire starting from an undetermined cause in the laundry of the Brown county insane asylum just after midnight did damage estimated at $8,000. Although none of the 112 patients were injured there was some confusion when the electric lights went out as a result of the blaze. The violent patients were taken to the front of the building, while the less violent were taken outside. Several of the patients tried to escape, but were recaptured. The loss is partially covered by insurance.

Indications Are That Shopmen Will Also Receive a Reduction in Wages

CONFERENCE OF LEADERS

Heads of Maintenance of Ways Union Have Already Sent Out Strike Ballots

By Associated Press

Chicago — A rail strike threatened the nation Saturday as railway unions awaited the impending slash by the railroad labor board in the wages of additional classes of employees, other than train service men.

B. M. Jewell, head of the railway employees department of the American federation of labor declared that the wage reductions would probably result in a strike vote following next Tuesday's conference of railroad union chiefs at Cincinnati.

Leaders of eleven rail unions will take part in the conference, Mr. Jewell said.

Reports have indicated that a decision in the wage reduction sought by the carriers for 500,000 shopmen would be forthcoming early next week and that it would be somewhat less than the cut announced last Sunday for maintenance of ways laborers which averaged about 10 per cent.

As a result the grand officers of the maintenance of way union have distributed strike ballots.

HARDING SHIELDS DAUGHERTY SAYS SENATOR STANLEY

Charges President With Attempting to Protest "Crooked Pardon Broker"

Washington — President Harding was charged Saturday in the senate by Senator Stanley, Democrat, Kentucky, with attempting to "stifle if not muzzle" the press to prevent publication of attack on Attorney General Daugherty and with making a desperate attempt to shield a man who dares not shield himself; to protect a man who dares not protect himself.

In the course of his attack, Senator Stanley assailed Mr. Daugherty as "the notorious and crooked pardon broker who makes it his business to deceive the president that men may plunder women in time of peace and rob the federal government in time of war."

IMPROVEMENT IN RETAIL BUSINESS IS REPORTED HERE

Merchants Say Volume of Trade Increases as More
Men Find Employment

J. H. Neller of Pettibone-Peterson company, "but there was quite an improvement in April. We had an excellent business during May and we expect to see continued improvement. We are in touch with merchants of other cities and find this condition true all over Wisconsin and some other states. This will be the worst year we have had but we expect to emerge with our losses offset largely by the bigger volume we are getting now. People seem to have much more confidence and are buying again. It will take the farmer a long time to overcome his losses but he is getting more buying from these people in the fall. I would say that conditions are quite promising."

"There has been a big improvement in our business the last two months," said H. A. Gloude of Gloude-Gage company. "It is not bigger than a year ago, but the volume is growing steadily. January, February and March were the worst months we have experienced. We look for a good farmer trade in the fall, because crops look excellent and the farms seem to be feeling better about the situation. I can see no reason why this increase in sales should not keep up all through the year. Everybody seems to have employment now, and of course that brings us more business. Most of the prices have been reduced all the way down but some items may go down further. Lower freight rates ought to be some help in lowering living costs."

BEST IN HISTORY
"We sold more merchandise during May than at any time in the history of our store," said O. P. Schlager, of Schlager Hardware company. "This surely does not look like hard times. It seems like old times to see the number of people that flock to the store. Our sales have been picking up ever since Jan. 1. I don't see why this should not continue. People are more conservative in their buying, however. They don't ask for the expensive articles now."

Mr. Schlager finds that farmers are doing more buying. A hopeful feature of the industrial situation also is shown in the increased sales of materials and equipment to mills of the valley. This is especially true of specialties sold to paper mills. It is now difficult to get deliveries from jobbers on sheet and bar iron because of the demand, and the prices of these materials are stiffening. More workers have been added to the Schlager force recently.

"Our business fell off considerably during January, February and March," said Miss Dorothy Geenan of Geenan Dry Goods company. "April was better and May is equal to a year ago. We expect a big business this fall. Farmers are not buying to any extent, but they probably will in the fall, because conditions appear quite favorable. The fact that almost everybody is employed is helping trade."

HARD TIMES GONE
"March was the worst month we have known," said John R. Diderich, of Saecker-Diderich company. "We have been on the upswing ever since and have enjoyed an excellent May business. Contracts now on our books will keep us busy for 60 days at least and we look for a continuance of this growing volume. The tension of hard times seems to be over and people who put off buying during the war because of high prices now are getting the things they want for their homes. We find that people who formerly bought a new automobile every year now buy better cars and keep them for several years. Some of the money they thus save is being put into furniture and other home equipment."

Tailoring business is identical in volume with the same period a year ago, according to Karl A. Schuetter, and a good business is anticipated. Journeymen tailors still are paid the peak wages of a year ago, because nobody is learning the trade and tailors are scarce. Woollens are down about one-third and this helps. The people of means have not stopped buying clothing, but the workman who lost his high wages now buys hand-me-down suits. Traveling men all say there is a general improvement in business. Mr. Schuetter says: "Clothing men experienced the same falling off of patronage that was characteristic of other lines earlier in the year, but the spring business has been highly satisfactory. Prices are much lower than formerly and this has helped to build sales. A growing volume of business is expected."

Here Are Tips On Road Conditions Near Here

Long Detours Over Poorly Surfaced Roads Will be Found on Some Trips

Sunda: there will be another roll call of the ever growing army of automobile cutters. And like last Sunday the response is likely to be heavy unless it rains.

With the weather on his side, however, the motorist cannot afford to strike out haphazardly on any road, just because Wisconsin has the best trunk highway system. He may encounter closed roads and irksome detours that will make him wish he had started out in another direction.

The automobile owner may spare himself a bit of trouble and time by considering the advice of the state and county highway commissions and the observations of fellow motorists, as to which roads are in good shape and which are not. The following descriptions may be of help.

Highway 15, Appleton to Milwaukee and beyond—three detours. One between Oshkosh and Fond du Lac of about 16 miles, narrow but in fair condition. The detour of about 14 miles from Lomax to Theresa is not very good, but passable. The south of Theresa and this side of Slinger is fair, but about 20 miles long. The rest is concrete road.

Highway 55, Fond du Lac to where the road joins No. 15 near Jackson—detours totaling about 32 miles. The detours are fairly good, according to reports.

Appleton to Fond du Lac via east lake shore on highways 114, 120 and 55, fair, no detours.

Appleton to Milwaukee by way of highways 15, 114 and 57—detour near Fredonia and Saukville, de-scribed as poor by the state highway commission, yet reported good by motorists who came that way late this week.

Appleton to Manitowish, No. 12—detour of four miles at Brillion, good.

Manitowish to Sheboygan and Milwaukee, No. 17—fair detour of five miles near Cleveland, which is mid-way between Manitowish and Sheboygan.

New Holstein to Sheboygan, 45—good, no detours.

Fond du Lac to Sheboygan, 23—good.

Appleton to Marshfield, highway 15—detour of four miles between Sheridan and Amherst. Earth roads between Sheridan and Amherst Junction. Muddy roads between Fremont and Wauwagea.

Highway 54, New London to Waupaca—earth road 14 miles, good condition, no detours.

Readheld through Winchester to Butte, des Morts, No. 95—unsurfaced sandy road.

Oshkosh to Green Lake, No. 91—a little rough.

Fond du Lac to Madison, No. 31—long detour from Seven Mile Creek to past Waupun, yet good generally.

Oshkosh to Winneconne—all concrete.

Oshkosh to Omro—road under construction. Take Fourth-st. road detour.

Appleton to Antigo, No. 47—concrete to Black Creek, good gravelled and earth roads.

Appleton to Marinette, No. 15—good.

Green Bay to Upper Peninsula, via 78—detour of 10 miles where road strikes 54. Ten mile detour near Sturgeon Bay.

Green Bay to Sturgeon Bay via Algoma, No. 54—bad detour of nine miles where road hits No. 78.

Black Creek to Green Bay—detour where 54 joins 16.

Hit With Farmers

Fox River Tractor Co. has designed a new silo filler that possesses all the good points of those now on the market and several additional features. It is a No. 16 and in a recent tryout it exceeded the anticipations of the company. The filler is such a success and is taking so well with farmers that the company expects to devote practically all its time the coming season to manufacturing them.

In designing the machine the manufacturers had in view one with a capacity for handling the largest number of any make of corn binder and still operate it with the lightest built tractors. In this they succeeded in the tryout it was operated with ease by a Fordson tractor. The filler is built entirely of steel and among its outstanding features are its four knives 16½ inches long mounted on a safety knife head 13 inches in diameter which is clamped on a cylinder shaft. Another feature is its 6-blade blower fan which is driven by steel helical cut gears. The cylinder shaft and blower fan are mounted on four Timken roller bearings which makes the machine operate very easily. It is the only filler on the market with a gear driven blower.

MAY WAS BUSIEST MONTH IN HISTORY OF LOCAL COURT

Sixty Persons are Sentenced and Fines Aggregating $1,613.66 are Paid

The month of May has set a record both as to the number and amount of fines in the municipal court of Oshkosh. An average of more than two persons were sentenced daily. There were 51 fines in criminal actions and 9 under city ordinances. This does not take into consideration all the arraignments, preliminary hearings, adjournments and dismissals that kept Judge A. M. Spencer busy every day of the month. Miss Margaret Hogan, court reporter, also has found it difficult to keep up with the work that accumulated during the record month.

A total of $1,613.66 was paid for fines and costs. Of this amount, $1,181.33 in fines and $228.36 in court costs and sheriff's fees were paid to the county treasurer for criminal offenses, while $90 in fines and $93.70 in officers' fees were paid for violations of the city ordinances. The heaviest fine imposed in the month was $300 and was for unlawful sale of intoxicating liquor.

The reckless and extravagant of speeders contributed heavily to the court's financial business. No fewer than 40 speeders and two reckless drivers were fined, the speeders paying a total of $528. The other fines were imposed as follows: Possession of intoxicating liquor, 3; drunkenness, 3; petit larceny, 2; transporting liquor, use of abusive language, sale of liquor, assault and battery, illegal fishing, false pretense, using false weights, selling noxious weeds in seeds, 1 each.

What Would You Do In Case of Fire?

If you were trapped in a smoke-filled room?

If you had to care for someone overcome by smoke?

Also, do you know how to attack a small fire with a bucket of water or with an extinguisher?

Lives and wealth may depend upon what you do in the first five minutes after the fire starts.

All of these things are explained in the Fire Booklet prepared by the National Board of Fire Underwriters for the United States Bureau of Education.

It also explains in great detail how to reduce to a minimum the danger of fire which threatens every home in this country every minute.

No householder can afford to be without this illustrated booklet. You can get your copy from our Washington Information Bureau if you send in your name and address with two cents in stamps for return postage. In filling out the coupon be sure to write clearly.

Classes Formed For Start Of Free Swimming Course

Two classes have been formed ready for the free swimming campaign beginning Monday in the Y. M. C. A. pool. Others will be organized as fast as the applications reach the office of R. H. Starkey, physical director.

There will be 21 pupils in the first group which is to have its lessons at 7 o'clock and 15 have been scheduled to date for the second class at 8 o'clock on Monday.

It was planned at first to give each man or boy three lessons in one week and allow him to come the next week if swimming had not been learned. This probably will be changed so there will be four lessons, two each week.

With Monday as the date on which the last enrollments are desired, it is expected that half a dozen classes will be formed. Those who enroll after the campaign is started will be added to present groups or new groups will be formed.

Should the number of applicants be more than the pool can accommodate, classes will be conducted in the municipal pool also. The instruction will be under direction of Mr. Starkey and A. P. Jansen, assistant physical director. Some of the instructors are Donald (Sehhardt), Donald McGrew, Clinton McReady, Karl Widesheim, Charles Treat, Dr. R. T. Farrand and Everett Wright, all expert swimmers.

There is still time to enroll and every man and boy who does not know how to swim is privileged to fill out the blank below and mail or leave at the Y. M. C. A. Notice will be sent when his class will meet. There is no admission fee or other obligation and suits are not needed.

FRANZKE ADDED TO COLLEGE FACULTY

Prof. Orr to Have Assistant in Department of Public Speaking

Albert Franzke will be assistant Prof. F. W. Orr in the department of public speaking at Lawrence college, according to announcement of the college. Mr. Franzke has resigned his position with the Kimberly-Clark company in order to study during the summer at the University of Wisconsin. He will assist in oratory and debate work at Lawrence next year and will also teach a course in economic history of the United States.

The work in the public speaking department has become too heavy for one man to handle. This year Prof. Orr has had two or three big projects operating practically all the time and has been able to bring about the most successful year for the department. With the natural increase in interest next year in his department and the increase in the number of students in the college, Prof. Orr was unable to work alone. Mr. Franzke was prominent in debate and oratory work when he was in college and has been of assistance to many of the debaters since he left school. He helped some with debate work this year.

Miss Mary Louise Baker from the State College of Iowa will be acting dean of the women next year while Mrs. Mary B. Housel finishes her work for her doctorate at the University of Ohio. Mrs. Housel has a year's leave of absence. Miss Baker is a graduate of DePaul university and of Columbia.

The great problem today—

of merchant, of manufacturer, of publisher—is the problem of Markets. Where is the market for my goods? Who will buy? What shall I say to them? How? Am I doing the best that can be done? Those who know—not guess, but know—the answers to such questions are fit to meet the selling problems of today. All others must either fail or struggle along with only a portion of the success they might easily enjoy.

There will be a great Forum—a great School of Experience—in session when business men gather for the

Eighteenth Annual Convention ASSOCIATED ADVERTISING CLUBS OF THE WORLD Milwaukee, June 11 to 15, 1922

To attend this school, men will travel half way around the world, and thousands will come from every quarter of the United States and Canada; and the cost of the convention, in traveling expense and other outgo of the delegates, will be at least $300 a minute for every hour the convention is in session. And it will be worth it.

A great exhibit of foreign and domestic advertising, in addition to the general sessions and the departmental meetings of the convention, will afford a rich harvest of practical ideas and helpful plans for those who want to improve their advertising and selling methods to meet the demand of the times.

Again this year, business men and women can attend these sessions without holding membership in the Association.

The central location of Milwaukee, its wonderful transportation facilities and the fact that June is Wisconsin's ideal month, insure a very large attendance.

THE CONFERENCE TICKET

The state conference of Republicans, which has nominated William J. Morgan for governor and Dr. W. A. Ganfield for United States senator, appears to have been successful in the purposes for which it was launched. The movement had its origin in a desire to secure as nearly as possible the spontaneous sentiment of the state in the selection of a ticket this fall that would unite those opposed to radicalism for its overthrow. The convention seems to have been practically of one mind, that Mr. Morgan was the logical candidate for governor. The overwhelming majority he received on the first ballot was surprising to his friends, consequently it must be accepted that his popularity is genuine and his capacity for leadership real.

Mr. Morgan has been a consistent as well as a persistent opponent of radicalism. He made that the issue in his campaign for attorney-general and was elected by a tremendous majority. While he offered to cooperate with the Blaine administration in the constitutional duties of his office, he has maintained an uncompromising fight on the forces of destruction throughout his term of office, and in the present election is making this his rallying cry. Nothing could be clearer than the fact that this is the only real issue in Wisconsin, and that all other questions are subsidiary and of relatively minor importance.

In sounding the keynote of the convention Senator Bosshard forcefully brought to the attention of the convention and the state at large, the fact that the La Follette and Blaine organization has departed far from the principles and reform program originally laid down by La Follette and which played a highly constructive part in the development of our state government. Among those now fighting La Follette are numerous Republicans who formerly were his closest friends and supporters. Mr. Bosshard himself was one of those. These men have been forced to break with the senator because his policies have degenerated into attacks upon society and government that in essence are socialistic and bolshevik.

The conference at Milwaukee, so far as can be judged on the surface, was a representative gathering, and its action was the free choice of the delegates. There was a minimum of political juggling, and certainly the ticket cannot be regarded as that of a machine or faction. Mr. Morgan's candidacy has been entirely independent of bosses, factions, or machines. He made his fight in the open and on a platform of principle. He is an excellent campaigner and we believe he will arouse the state to serious interest in the questions of the approaching election. With a properly managed campaign and the active support of Republicans who claim to stand for sane government he ought to immediately put Blaine on the defensive and easily beat him for re-election.

While the same cannot be said for Dr. Ganfield in his contest with Senator La Follette, it remains to be disclosed how formidable an opponent he may really make himself. He is a man of ability and would serve Wisconsin in the senate with distinction, but whether he is the type who can arouse public enthusiasm and get votes is unknown. We know that Mr. La Follette has these qualities and that a tremendous effort will be required to defeat him. It is not improbable, however, that Mr. La Follette in the course of this campaign may contribute something to his own defeat by the venom and radicalism he is certain to display. It is only a question of time until the people of Wisconsin come to realize the extremes to which he has gone and his departure from the principles he originally advocated. When they do they will retire him to private life. Is Dr. Ganfield the man who can bring the realization home to them?

POINCARÉ, GEORGE AND SOVIET ARMY

The diplomacy of Premier Lloyd George of Great Britain is exemplified in an exceptionally clear manner in the statesman's remarks since the close of the Genoa conference. Mr. George has warned Europe of the menace of the Red army of 1,500,000 men, and he has told Russia that the soviet must adopt the code of honor of all European nations.

President Poincaré of France replies that continental Europe does not fear Trotsky's army. He gives three reasons to support his statement: First, he does not believe the Red army is as big as it is said to be; second, the soviet could not support the army if it went beyond the Russian boundary, and third, the army is needed so much in Russia that the soviet would not dare to let the troops march out. In brief, Poincaré contends that the Red army is the soviet police force.

It is well that Lloyd George's strategy failed with the United States and France. Trotsky and his soldiers are not starving; nor are they working. If Russia could have secured recognition and a large loan, it could have supported the Trotsky Reds indefinitely, and it is the Red army that is imposing communism on Russia. The time is near at hand when Lenin will want money more than 1,500,000 Red soldiers.

RADIO AND READING

Mr. Meredith Nicholson, the Indiana novelist, has discussed in an interview the possibility that the radio, the movies and the automobile may diminish interest in books, newspapers and magazines. So much time will be given to entertainment and pastime, enjoyed without effort, that people will have none to spare for reading.

It is obvious that the movies and the automobile have modified the literary taste of the people. Librarians report that the public does not care so much for style or sentiment in literature as it does for action and information.

On the other hand, there is apparent a demand for more class in plot and action, in the movies. Exceptionally interesting or instructive books seldom fail to become popular. As to the radio, it has come to stay, but as a utility, and its effect will not be to weaken the daily newspaper but to make it better. If the people have less time for reading, they probably will be more particular as to what they read.

WITH US ONCE MORE

Flies are a menace.
Fly season is at hand.
Beware of the "Typhoid Fly."
Use screens for comfort, health and sanitation.

Flies are born in filth, they breed in filth, they carry filth.

Screen all food, whether in the house or exposed for sale.

Aside from its germ carrying propensities, the fly is filthy and dirty.

Did you ever stop to consider that most of the impure milk is rendered so by the fly?

There is only one safe way to guard against the fly, and that is to keep him out.

Flies spread filth and disease, which causes sickness and misery; the great destroyers of peace, health and happiness.

How much safer and easier it is to keep flies out of your homes by proper screening than to get them out when once they are in.

Until comparatively recent years, the common house fly, like the mosquito, though considered an irritating discomfort, was thought to be otherwise harmless.

Many cities have ordinances requiring screens to be placed in all stores, restaurants and other places where food stuffs and drinkables are sold or prepared. All should have.

While it may be impossible to exterminate flies and mosquitoes, the danger and trouble they cause may be greatly lessened by the proper use of screen doors and window screens.

The Glorification of Marbles

Is marbles to develop into an organized national sport, with regular championship contests? Tom Sawyer and Huck Finn would have opened their mouths at the great match on Pershing Field, Jersey City, on Saturday, when, in the presence of 3,000 juvenile fans and with motion-picture cameras recording the historic event "Buster" Rech, fourteen years, the local champion, beat Michael Troiano, also fourteen, the Washington wonder.

Fathers who would marbles-shooting days are in the long ago may yet understand the thrill which ran through the crowd when the victor's last shot, sent from his knee, hit his opponent's marble at a distance of fifteen feet. Do Babe Ruth's homers beat that exhibition of supreme mastery?—NEW YORK WORLD.

The "Morris Code" is still giving the radio plenty of competition down at Washington.—INDIANAPOLIS STAR.

The Protocol of Middle Age Breakdown

It is not surprising from a horror of suggesting symptoms to the reader as it is from lack of dependable data that I hesitate to recite the history or protocol of cardiovascular degeneration. The breakdown of middle age is spectacular enough, to be sure, but that is not what I would picture for the reader. It is the slow, insidious, too often unrecognized or recklessly ignored undermining of health, the seemingly trifling impairment, the gradually diminishing physical efficiency, extending thru months and years before the actual breakdown that I am trying to picture for the reader. From the very fact that this is a long drawn out process, a very insidious change from a former state of excellent health to the present state of indifferent health which it is the popular custom to ascribe to everything but CVD, the signs or symptoms are difficult to define. The patient himself can scarcely describe them intelligently, because they undergo gradual change as the heart artery system becomes little by little more impaired and since the degenerative process is really a matter of several years it is not surprising that a satisfactory running record is seldom obtained. Last year it was perhaps "a little stomach trouble," this year "nervous exhaustion," next year it may be "overwork"; and as these fancied causes succeed one another their history fades from the mind. So I warn the reader that the picture I shall present of the incipient stage of heart artery wearing out is merely a general conception derived from a composite review of a number of cases in which fairly good records were kept for a period of years. You should not miss this. I'm gonna tell you the symptoms!

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Superfluous Hair

Kindly tell me thru your column, or by mail if you prefer, for which I will send necessary postage on notification, what to do for a case of superfluous hair on the face. (E. W.)

Answer: Shave. In any case where there is some unsightly objection to the removal of superfluous hair, electrolysis in the hands of an expert operator is the only alternative I can recommend. A safety razor is in every way preferable to any chemical substance which is powerful enough to dissolve off hair.

A Poutice

Your advice about the use of wheat bran prompts me to ask whether you favor the use of linseed meal mixed with bran or with breakfast cereal. Also whether you regard the use of glycerine taken internally as a good lubricant for the intestinal canal? (J. L. S.)

Answer: The con before last, I think it was, I suggested here the use of about a tablespoonful of whole flaxseeds daily, straight or with any cereal, as a natural lubricant laxative. If you do not mind the taste of linseed meal it would be all right that way. Glycerine has the same objection as salts, that is, it physics by extracting water from the delicate lining of the alimentary canal and is therefore not a desirable laxative.

The Old Oiler Canard

Do you agree with the celebrated Dr. Oiler that when one reaches the age of 60 he should be chloroformed? To what extent will the taking of two miles of oxygen on the hoof each day prolong one's usefulness beyond the age of 60? (C.)

Answer: Had Dr. Oiler ever advocated such a thing I think I should agree with him, at least in many cases. But as he never did advocate it, I can't very well agree. At 60 years in diem will increase one's fitness about 60 per centum after 60, but two miles only once a day will just keep one so-so.

Clinical Tuberculosis

Do you candidly believe there is any cure for tuberculosis? Please give me a good diet for a tubercular person. My husband has clinical tuberculosis and is at present in El Paso. (Mrs. F. R. J.)

Answer: Clinical means sick-bed or sick-bed, or in conjunction with tuberculosis it means the disease is active, presenting signs which may be elicited in the examination of the patient or symptoms which the patient himself feels. That is a serious condition, and no one except the patient's own physician is competent to lay down a suitable diet. Active or clinical tuberculosis is probably the most frequently cured of all serious diseases. I have no specific remedy or cure in mind. The important essentials in the cure, named in order, are: (1) Constant supervision and direction of a good physician; (2) rest in bed; (3) open air; (4) suitable food; (5) freedom from emotional distress such as fears implanted by unkind or inconsiderate friends, homesickness among unsympathetic strangers, domestic or financial anxieties. I do not mention climate as a factor in recovery, because statistics prove that it is of no importance where the patient curries the cure. I do not mention drugs or medicines, because that is an individual problem in each case, to be left entirely in the hands of the attending physician.

GERMAN INDUSTRIAL CHIEFS FAVOR FRANCE

Paris—Dr. Hermes, who is supported by the great German industrial leaders, wants to come to an understanding with France concerning reparations. Daniel Ozer, Berlin correspondent of the ECLAIR writes on this subject.

"The Electro-Jew" as Maximilian Harden calls Walter Rathenau, is about to be dethroned by Dr. Hermes, present minister of finance. Dr. Hermes is undoubtedly the "coming man." People say he is a personal and political enemy of Chancellor Wirth; that he was absolutely opposed to the Rapallo treaty and that he despises Rathenau and his theories. They also say that he wants to start a new policy and come to an understanding with France. What Hermes wants is a policy of business, a policy where "cold reason decides." They also say he is supported by the great industrial leaders, such as Siemens, Thyssen, and the brothers Klockner. So that he has several trumps in his hand which Wirth has not had, and we know that no German government can last unless it is supported by the big industrialists.

Hermes was but yesterday an unknown man. In his best years—scarcely 45—born in the Rhine-land, Catholic and consequently belonging to the centre, in his opinions and tendencies he leans more towards the head of his party, the "father" Marx, than Wirth who compromised himself by his negotiations with the extreme left socialists. The finance minister has had a very rapid political career. After studying rural economy at Poppelendorf, where later on he gave forth the "American family," he served several official missions in England, Italy and South America, where he took part in several agricultural congresses. He is even in possession of a chair at the Agricultural Institute in Rome. When war broke out he was attached to the press staff office in Berlin, and in 1920 he became minister of agriculture and food, and abolished food control, for which he was violently attacked by the socialists.

"Within the last two years Hermes has risen to the first rank of official politics in his country. Today he is minister of finance, tomorrow perhaps he will be Chancellor, if he wishes. The majority socialists, who don't like him, realize the danger, and are attacking him every day in their papers accusing him of intriguing against Wirth and Rathenau."

"Dr. Hermes has always been an opponent of the forced loan which he considered irreconcilable. He has himself formed another project which he hopes to make successful. Unlike Rathenau, he speaks very little, in spite of knowing four languages (German, French, English and Italian). He weighs his words and listens."

"Dr. Hermes was accompanied by Dr. Bergmann on his visit to Paris. The latter was former president of the "Kriegslastenkommission" (War burden commission) and secretary of state, and is at present director of the Deutsche Bank. Bergmann has been playing a great part in the last weeks. He was in London, Paris and Geneva, where he has been negotiating with allied experts. It was he who in agreement with Sir Thomas Bradbury, arranged the wording of the last German note to the reparations commissions, which is to serve as basis for negotiations relative to the moratorium and the term due on the 31st May. It was Bergmann who submitted to the reparations commission and to the French expert, Seydoux, the plan of a foreign loan. He seems to be inspired with the best intentions and is said to believe in France's right to reparations. A year ago he defended Wirth's conciliatory policy in the Reichstag and prepared to overthrow Fredehach and Simons."

"It is to these two men," concludes the writer, "the one a banker whom we have heard of for the last few years, and the other a minister who is trying a new policy, that Germany has entrusted the defense of her interests."

REDUCTION OF FREIGHT RATES RECEIVES APPROVAL

Newspapers approve the ten per cent horizontal reduction in freight rates ordered by the Interstate Commerce Commission. There are many however who do not think that it goes far enough. Others express sincere regret that passenger and Pullman charges were not also acted on. But generally, it is conceded, that a step of this nature will go far towards restoring normalcy to the business of the nation. A few papers profess to see political motives behind the action but they are far in the minority and for the most part there is a concerted ignoring of politics in the editorial comment.

That the Commission allowed its intention to "back" to President Harding and Senator Watson is the charge of the New York EVENING WORLD (Dem.) claiming that "there is too much evidence of political pressure" in the timing of the announcement. The paper believes, however, that "until lower rates have been tried no one can be sure they are unreasonable. The lower rates may mean better business for the country and better profits for the railroads. Give the new schedule a trial. The present plan, also, in view of the Boston POST (Ind.) and the New York POST (Dem.) is probably a temporary expedient. The general idea of running the railroads on the "service at cost" plan is, therefore, being continued. With this finger period of trial it is to be hoped that more satisfactory results will be obtained than in the past two years." Even if the horizontal reduction is not "satisfactory," the New York EVENING POST (Ind.) believes it appealed to Congress as "a direct, quick, and practical way of dealing with an unsatisfactory situation." While the decision is "a gamble," the POST thinks it shows the necessity of the roads securing "relief in the matter of costs. Cheaper transportation is a public necessity."

By coupling the cut with a reduction of the net fair-returns the Commission "killed two birds with one stone" the Newark NEWS (Ind.) asserts and in doing so "it has submitted to no dictation or moral pressure either by the President or the roads." Action at this particular time, the Washington STAR (Ind.) points out, "has opened the way for a revival in the business of the nation and a betterment of the living conditions of all the people. There is no chance for national prosperity, the Lynchburg NEWS (Dem.) adds, excepting with reduced rates and the roads can "well afford to sustain the slight reduction in view of the larger good that will thereby be insured to industrial America." And regardless of dispute as to whether a flat reduction was the proper method the Indianapolis NEWS (Ind.) argues that "there has been an appreciable reduction of rates that affect everything and the buying public will, in consequence expect a corresponding recession of prices to accompany the expected increase of business."

That there was no immediate necessity why the question of passenger rates should have been passed upon at this time is argued by the Syracuse HERALD (Ind.) because they "effect the relative few where as freight rates are a matter of concern to every consumer." Not only that but "there can be no return to normal times while freight rates between Southern and Eastern points," the Birmingham NEWS (Dem.) says, "and between Northern and Western points make prohibitory the shipment of commodities essential to the comfort of the American family." The action is welcome because "public sentiment has long favored and expected a rate reduction order by the Commission," the Chicago NEWS (Ind.) declares. "At the same time the feeling is strong and widespread that at least some of the railroads will be unable to earn fair returns on the value of their property under the lowered rate unless the railroad labor breaks orders and substantial wage reductions." Such an order, a few months ago would have thrown the "stock market into a panic," the Cincinnati TIMES STAR (Rep.) recalls, adding that "the fact that such an order is possible today without immediate unpleasant results speaks well both for the effort to restore railroad efficiency under private management and for the basic soundness of economic conditions in the United States." The Commission should have taken action to a least reduce Pullman rates the Savannah PRESS (Dem.) believes because to the "men who fly by night" the sleeping car is not a luxury but a necessity."

That the existing rates have "impaired the prosperity" of the railroads is the opinion of the Appleton POST-CRESCENT (Ind.) and the reductions "will unquestionably increase volume and we may expect to see before the end of the year a substantial increase in the gross earnings of the railroads." This position is squarely endorsed by the Buffalo TIMES (Dem.) which is convinced that "with freight charges approaching normalcy traffic all over the country will respond. The action of the Interstate Commerce Commission is the most encouraging news that business, and the great public whose interests in the ultimate analysis, are synonymous with those of business, has had for a long while." In addition the Ann Arbor TIMES NEWS (Ind.) expects that "the interstate cut will be followed by a reduction in charges levied within the states which will completely end the general tie up resulting from excessive freight costs."

The decision emphasizes the necessity for coordinating the wage and rate problems of the railroads. PROGRESS & INDEX APPEAL (Ind.) points out, saying that "the time will come when the body which fixes compensation of employees of transportation companies will also fix the rates for service rendered by such companies. More than that it is probable that eventually the wage rate will automatically change with the freight rate and vice versa."

Coming on top of the President's order to cut the cost of the railroad, the Jacksonville METROPOLIS (Ind. Dem.) suggests that "ouija and the Harding administration are on intimate terms," but the paper endorses the principle of rate reduction adding that "the country wants to see an efficient administration of the transportation facilities of the nation. As this efficiency makes itself felt, other reductions will be in order." In addition the St. Paul PI. OYER PRESS (Ind.) points out "if the expected happens and lower rates mean lower prices all around, it would not be unfair and inconsistent if the carriers are shut out of the benefits of a situation they are called upon to create." There is no question in the opinion of the Flint JOURNAL (Ind.) that the decision will "greatly encourage" the country and it believes that the "increased volume of traffic" may "offset any further wage reductions."

But while business will welcome the reduction the Raleigh NEWS AND OBSERVER (Dem.) believes that it does not go far enough as "there is yet a long way to go before we are back to normalcy in freight rates." It also would like passenger and Pullman rates cut. There also is a danger that the effect of the decision will be underestimated. The Boston NEWS LEADER (Ind. Dem.) suggests that "too much cannot be expected from this relief measure when America's foreign market is as crippled as at present."

TWENTIETH CENTURY PROGRESS
About thirty years ago it was still the praise-worthy custom in many homes to hold evening devotions at the quiet hours of eight or nine, in which the young people participated. This beautiful custom, however, like some others, unfortunately seems to belong to the dim, distant past. Where are many of our young people at this hour today? Out joy-riding on some lonely road, whizzing down the telegraph slide to destruction, at sixty miles an hour. In the large cities thousands can be seen sitting in some elevated (?) cabaret drinking fancy concoctions, while they are entertained by a conglomeration of rasping noises called Jazz "music." (Shades of Beethoven!) Others are gazing on some "character building" Theda Bara movie, while still others are engaged in the dignified (?) pastime of shimmying on the pavement. Let us hope that they will succeed in shimmying themselves past St. Peter some day. If thirty years ago some one had predicted that women would be in skirts out to the knees, waist cut to the bell line, hair bobbed, while some even donned turtlenecks, they would have been thought a fit candidate for some state hospital. But these things have come to pass. Clothes, songs, music, dances, and morals are all on a par. Judging from the "progress" that has been made in styles in the last few years, we may expect, ten years from now, to see my lady walking forth, clad in the highly civilized costume of the Fiji Islander which consists of a straw ruffie and a string of beads, and perhaps a ring in her nose! The dapper young-grand father, we have always had with us, who massaged and betacumed, sends his poor dim eyes "foam-fooling after the youngest of feminism within reach but the flapperized grandmother is distinctly new! With her short skirts, rolled down socks, tinted hair etc., she can easily be mistaken for "sweet sixteen" instead of "silly sixty" when viewed from the rear. For instance, in a large city recently, a young "roue" with time hanging heavily on his hands was quite smitten with the "fashion plate appearance of a lady who was walking ahead of him so, he promptly "clumped on the trail" until the lady turned, disclosing the wrinkled features of a woman of seventy. The expression of mingled disappointment on the would-be-masher's countenance, would have furnished an excellent subject for some cartoonist who does not prefer the dear old fashioned grandmother of former years, whose smoothly flowing gown, adorned with sensible gray hair and plain, sensible shoes, wherever she went, to the poor artifice creature of today, who fools nobody but herself. Truly the most uncommon thing in this world, is good common sense! Then we have the young "roue" of nineteen or so who is steeped to the eyebrows in worldly wisdom, to say nothing of that twentieth century product the male "auto vamp!" If all this, together with the shelving of all such desirable qualities as dignity, self-respect, courtesy, modesty, and chastity be "progress" kindly deliver us from any more of it! The Bureau cannot give advice on legal, medicinal, and financial matters. It does not attempt to settle domestic troubles, nor to undertake exhaustive research on any subject. Write your question plainly and briefly. Give full name and address and enclose two cents in stamps for return postage. All replies are sent direct to the inquirer.)
Q. Did the city of Chicago give the Government the land included in the site of Fort Sheridan? A. M. P.
A. A committee of Chicago citizens alarmed by the railroad riots of 1857 and the Haymarket riot of 1886, purchased the site of Fort Sheridan to insure the city against mob violence.
Q. Are water, tea, coffee, chocolate and cocoa all foods? W. L.
A. Water may be regarded as the most important of all foods, but tea and coffee are classed as stimulants. Both chocolate and cocoa possess large food values.
Q. How long has Marcel waving been known? F. C. H.
A. Next October a grand Marcel fete is to be given in France to honor Monsieur Marcel, the originator of the Marcel wave. He is now 70 years old, and it is fifty years since he began to seek a way to imitate the wave of naturally curly hair. After two years of experimenting he invented the process for artificial waving which bears his name.
Q. How many doctors, nurses, teachers, and preachers are there in this country? L. S.
A. The Bureau of Census shows the following number of persons in these professions: physicians and surgeons, 144,977; trained nurses, 149,125; teachers, 761,768; clergymen, 127,270.
Q. Should a pheasantry be started with mature birds or with eggs? T. H. D.
A. The Department of Agriculture says that it is possible to start a pheasantry in either way. Eggs may be hatched by barn yard fowls, but there are so many uncertainties in hatching and raising the young that it is about as economical to buy full grown birds.
Q. How many oil wells and gas wells are there in the United States? E. P.
A. The Geographical Survey says that on October 31, 1920, there were approximately 258,000 oil wells in the United States, and 37,700 gas wells.
Q. What is a cadastre? E. D. V.
A. This is an official register showing in the value, quantity and ownership of real property. It is used as a basis for the apportionment of taxes.
Q. Do foxes ever laud together like wolves? W. I.
A. Foxes never hunt in packs.
Q. When was forestry first introduced into this country? H. R.
A. The first example of professional forest management in the United States was begun in 1591 on the Biltmore Estate at Asheville, N. C.
Q. What kind of animals produce shoemaker's bristles? G. K.
A. The best shoemaker's bristles are produced by pigs that inhabit cold countries. Formerly most of them came from Russia, but now China and the United States are supplying a large part of the market.
DYED THE FLIES PINK
London—The Suija correspondent of the Daily Mail says that a doctor's ingenious experiment to fix the blame for the origin of a plague of flies, believed to have come from a vegetable garden belonging to a Chinese resident, has been tried here with success. Dr. Carment, the medical officer of Suija, latched a number of flies from the refuse in the vegetable garden and fed them on raw meat, bread, and sugar, which he saturated in a deep pink alkaline dye. Gradually the flies became pink, and after satisfying himself that the color was permanent, he released the flies into the garden and requested householders to watch their fly-traps and report if pink ones were caught.
The following day nearly every household in Suija reported that pink flies were swarming into their larders and fly-traps. As a result, it is believed that the Chinese will have to remove his vegetable garden.

SCOUT HIKERS TO ENCIRCLE LAKE

Troop No. 8 is Arranging 4-day Trip Beginning June 4 To Camp in Open

Members of boy scout troop No. 8 are planning a 4-day hike around Lake Winnebago under the direction of their scoutmaster, the Rev. C. Willard Cross. It is planned to start at 9 o'clock on the morning of June 4. The first dinner will be eaten just outside Neenah, and the first night in the open will be spent just beyond Oshkosh, the second beyond Fond du Lac and the third at High Cliff. The hikers will adhere as closely as possible to the lake shore for the study of birds, flowers, trees and other nature subjects. The distance would be too great for some of the boys to cover afoot, some of the sponsors suggested use of automobiles as far as Fond du Lac. A protest from the scouts caused a change in plans, as all wanted to walk the entire distance or stay at home. Each scout is to provide his own equipment except food. A cook, water boy and fireman will be appointed. Each hiker is to be assigned some camping task to perform. The boys estimate the cost of their nine meals at $1.50.

Work on the new west end filling station is progressing rapidly and the owners expect to have it ready for business within the next three weeks. The cement driveways have been completed and work on the building which is being constructed of brick is well advanced. The ground back of the station is being graded and will be beautified later with flowers and shrubbery.

"A Reo is Still New After 50,000 Miles"

All Reo owners will endorse that assertion—and some will double the distance. There are several reasons for this.

One is the perfect system of lubrication that has been designed and built into every moving part of the car—every joint—however slight the action or load.

Another is the design and length and quality of springs.

Clutch, transmission, gears and axles, play their parts — one unit of a Reo is just as strong and just as well made as all others.

But unquestionably, the Reo Six motor is more responsible than any other unit for the won- derful durability of Reos.

TEAM SHAKEN UP IN EFFORT TO WIN GAMES

Baseball Followers Will Have Trouble Recognizing Their New Squad

Last minute changes in plans for Sunday afternoon's ball game with Fond du Lac were announced by Manager August Brandt after he learned that two of the men expected here for the matinee will be unable to come because of illness. Goodman, booked to cover second, and Brauxmeier, crack outfielder, both of Milwaukee, are ill and will not be here. Brandt, however, was not much disconcerted inasmuch as he had a line on a number of high class players. Jordan and Dagen, two high grade players, will make their initial bow to local fans Sunday afternoon. Dagen has been coveting with the McCoy-Nolan team of Milwaukee and Jordan has been with the Sisson-Sewell outfit, one of the strongest in the Cream City.

Joe Wilson an outfielder hailing from Ludington, Mich., will get a chance with the local outfit. He is reported to be a demon with the stick. Last year his batting average was third highest in the Michigan State league and the year before he ranked second from the top in the Lake Shore League.

Connie Reik is another new man to be seen here Sunday. He is an outfielder who went good with the Two Rivers team of the Lake Shore League a year ago. He is said to be something of a stickler Sunday afternoon. Brandt and his manager, Jack Herzog, have been doing all in their power to build up a slugging team. The new men are said to be exceptionally handy with the bludgeon. Fans are inclined to believe that if a slugging team can be organized with Schultz as a hurler nothing in the Valley league can stop the Brands.

Karst, the noted Sioux league pitcher, will cover third base. He is about the fastest thing on two legs in this territory, it is said.

Britz will succeed Shott behind the bat next Sunday. Fans generally are a little disappointed over Joe's release. The little backstop was popular here. Britz will have to make good with a vengeance if the bugs are to be satisfied with the change.

Forfe probably will line up like this: Schult, p.; Brit, c.; Goede, lb.; either Dagen or Jordan, 2b.; Karst, 3b.; Braby, ss.; Duran, Luedke, Wilson and Reik, outfielders.

ARRANGING FOR BUFF-LYNCH BOUT

New York—Another world's boxing championship contest in addition to the two he has already closed will probably be conducted by Tex Richard during the current season. The promoter declared Friday night that he would select a date for a world's bantamweight title bout between Champion Jimmy Buff and Joe Lynch. Who formerly held the title, just as soon as Buff signified his readiness to risk his title against Lynch. The two boxers already are signed to contracts. A bout between Buff and Lynch was scheduled for May 5 at Madison Square Garden, but was postponed because Buff then was suffering from swollen glands in the neck. Forfeits for weight still are up, Richard said, and Eddie Mead, Lynch's manager, has notified the promoter of Lynch's readiness to go through with the contract for the postponed bout. Richard now is waiting word from Buff, who still is recovering from the effects of the operation performed on his neck.

MORVICH LIKELY TO MEET SNOB II

New York—Negotiations are in progress to bring together Snob II, the $85,000 colt which won the Withers mile at Belmont on Wednesday, and Benjamin Block's great Kentucky Derby winner, Morvich, in a match race with a third horse entered to comply with the law forbidding match races. If the appointments for the horses in the near future will permit, the horses may be tested at Belmont. Snob is to start in the $50,000 Belmont stakes on June 10 and is to run against Morvich and the rest of the field in the $50,000 Kentucky Special at Latonia on June 24. Morvich is not eligible for the Belmont. If the trainers decide their charges are able to stand another race between those two dates the arrangements are likely to be made.

U. W. CREW TO RACE WESTERN OARSMEN

Madison, Wis.—The University of Wisconsin crew will take to the water against the University of Washington crew on Lake Mendota June 12. The contest will bring out the strength of the Wisconsin crew and their showing will be one of the strongest considerations affecting the decision of the board regarding entrance in the eastern classic at Poughkeepsie.

Last April Ed Leader's Washington oarsmen defeated the University of California by ten boat lengths, just after the latter aggregation had placed second in the Poughkeepsie regatta.

COUNTY LEAGUE TEAM READY FOR SUNDAY'S GAMES

Big Crowds are Expected in Outagamie Villages Sunday Afternoon

Cunday afternoon six teams of the Outagamie County Baseball league will start in the fourth game of their 1922 schedule. The Interlakes of Appleton will go to Dale; Freedom will journey to Kimberly and Black Creek is to play on the Hortonville diamond. The games begin at 2 o'clock.

Baseball in the valley wheel is improving with every game. The teams, getting off to a late start, have been working hard and now are playing like veterans. Interest also is growing with every game. In some towns the attendance has been almost equal to the town's population. That is saying a good deal for interest in the sport.

The county league here is one of the most successful of its kind in the state, it is said. Other counties have attempted to emulate the example set here but are not getting away so very well. If the teams continue to play good baseball there is no reason why the season cannot be a rousing success.

"PAIS" SIGN NEW PITCHER FOR SUNDAY

Menasha Fox River Valley baseball club has signed Pitcher Cashion of the Beloit Fairies for the game Sunday at Kaukauna. Cashion is one of the best bush league twirlers in the state and his acquisition does much to boost Menasha chances in next Sunday's game.

It was announced by Menasha club owners this afternoon that Herzog has reconsidered his announcement of quitting and would be back in line Sunday.

IF THIS PLAY COMES UP

Here's Your Decision

If a coacher standing at third base shall run in direction of the home plate while a fielder is making a play on a batted ball, or a throw ball, and draws a throw to home base, the runner entitled to third base shall be called out by the umpire because of the coacher's interference with or prevention of a legitimate play. For example, if, with none out and a runner on third, the batsman hits a ball to the shortstop and on fielding it he notices a player dashing for the plate. Believing it to be the runner on third the fielder throws wildly to the plate, the runner on third seeing and the batsman reaching second. In such a case the umpire should declare out the runner on third who had scored and grant the batsman only first base, sending him back to that base from second.

"Pep" Young Makes Great Comeback

However, the reason for the sudden turn of events in the life and habits of the team is due not wholly to the men that Mack has had under him for the last few years. On the contrary, the bulk of the credit is given to three players who came to the Athletics this year from other clubs. "Pep" Young, second baseman, was scoured from Detroit; "Bing" Miller, center fielder, came to Philadelphia from Washington, and "Doc" Johnson, first baseman, is from Cleveland. Young's case is peculiar. Last spring, as a member of the Detroit team, Young suddenly developed a throwing weakness. He found it impossible to throw accurately to first, particularly when there were runners on the bases. His bed throws were nearly all costly.

NOTHING VISIBLY WRONG

Several examinations of Young's arm failed to reveal any physical weakness and Young was suffering, apparently, from a mental hazard.

When he showed the same weakness this spring Detroit decided that Young could not overcome the fault as long as he played with the Tigers and so waivers were asked on him. Connie Mack took him at the waiver price.

When Young reported to Mack, the Athletic boss asked him how his arm was and Young told him that it was in fine shape.

"How's your throwing?" asked Mack.

"Bad."

"You say your arm is all right, but that your throwing is bad. What is the trouble?"

"I guess so, too. But my troubles also are mental. For seven years I have been managing ball clubs here that have succeeded in finishing last each year and that is enough mental trouble for anyone. I can sympathize with you."

THROW THE BALL

"Now, I want you to do just one thing for me and that is—throw the ball."

"You are going to play second base. You are going to play it alone. The position is yours. Nobody is going to give you any advice or interfere with you and nobody is going to criticize you. All you have to do is go out there and play second and when you get that ball you throw it."

"Now, I don't care if you throw it 20 feet wide of first base or 20 feet over the first baseman's head. Throw it into the grandstand or throw it out of the park, but throw it and throw it every time you get it. That's all."

Young followed Mack's advice. The throwing weakness disappeared. With this fault erased Young began hitting the ball and doing some remarkable fielding.

Confidence was restored in him and when a man fully believes in himself he can do remarkable things. Young has been doing them. His infolding has been the sensation of the Athletics' play, just as "Bing" Miller's out-fielding has been. Young is playing better ball than he ever played before.

HOW TO PLAY BASEBALL

Art of Hitting

BY BILLY EVANS

There is a saying in baseball that the great hitters are born, not made. Those advocating such a theory insist there is no way a player can be taught to make home runs like Babe Ruth.

True, it is impossible to lay down any set of rules that will make a batter emulate the deeds of the Babe. Nature endowed him with a good pair of eyes, a great physique, and a destructive swing.

However, by careful study and persistent effort, it is possible to improve one's ability to bat.

Don't make the error of using too heavy a bat. Because Babe Ruth swings a heavy stick, don't think that you can. Also don't get the impression that a heavy bat is essential to a good hitter.

The use of too heavy a bat is a fault that handicaps a great many batters unknowingly. They can't handle it properly, which results in a late swing. The bat swings the hitter instead of the batsman swinging the bat.

A short or medium bat of a light weight is better than a long heavy bat for the average hitter.

PROPER GRIP IMPORTANT

The next thing is the proper way to grip the bat. Usually it is advisable to handle a bat as it feels best to you. Most batters hold the hands as closely together as possible and grip the bat fairly close to the end.

Most of the great hitters stand with the feet as closely together as is comfortable. One should always have an easy position while in the batter's box rather than a strained posture.

The foot nearest the pitcher should always be closer to the plate than the rear foot.

Manager Ty Cobb and Outfielder Heilmann, Suspended by Johnson, Reinstated

Chicago—Jimmy Caveney and "Pat" Duncan of Cincinnati were the National league home run hitters Friday, each driving the ball over the right field wall in the game against the Cubs.

Kenneth Williams of the St. Louis Browns broke his tie with Hornsby of the St. Louis Cardinals Friday when he cracked out his fourteenth circuit drive, in the game against the Chicago White Sox. Bob Falk of the White Sox also poled a four-bagger into the bleachers. It was Falk's fourth homer in three days and his sixth of the season. Danny Clark of the Detroit Tigers was the other American league home run hitter, crashing out his drive against Coveleskie of Cleveland.

Manager Cobb of the Detroit Tigers and Harry Heilmann, his slugging outfielder who were indefinitely suspended by President Johnson on Memorial day, have been reinstated.

The New York Giants lost half a game in the National league pennant race Friday to Pittsburgh when they lost to Boston while the Pirates were kept idle by rain. The worlds champions are only two games ahead of Pittsburgh Saturday.

CONFERENCE STARS IN TRACK FINALS

University of Illinois Looks Like Winner—New Javelin Throw Record

By Associated Press

Iowa City, Ia.—Track stars of the big universities of the mid-west dug their spikes into the cinder paths in Iowa field on an attack on records in the finals of the Western conference outdoor track and field championship meet. Indications are that the University of Illinois team which won the 1921 outdoor and indoor championships of the big ten will score an overwhelming triumph with Notre Dame, Wisconsin and Minnesota fighting it out for second place honors. The meet attracted stars from all the universities in the western conference, some of the Missouri Valley conference teams, Notre Dame, Butler, the Michigan Aggies and other leading schools in this section. Qualifying events staged Friday developed a new conference record for the javelin throw. Milton Angier of Illinois hurled the javelin 195 feet 43-4 inches breaking the former record of 178 feet 4 inches established by Howard Hoffman of the University of Michigan last year.

75 ENROLED TO PLAY TENNIS AT Y. M. C. A.

Tennis activities at the Y. M. C. A. this year are expected to surpass those of all other years. About 75 persons are enrolled in the tennis club and are using the courts regularly. There are more than 30 girls in this enrollment. With vacation here, many more are expected to join the net playing ranks.

The three courts this year are in the best condition they ever have been. The playing space has been newly surfaced, the fences rebuilt and other improvements made.

EAT CARROTS IF YOU WOULD HAVE BLOOM OF HEALTH

Once Despised Rabbit Food Said to Contain Elixir of Perpetual Youth

BY MARGARET ROBE

Lo, the lowly little carrot. Has acquired a wondrous merit; As an aid to health and beauty, this carrot can't be beat.

You just take it up and pare it. Eat it raw, and soon, I swear it, You'll be beautiful and slender if a pound a week you eat.

New York—All our very best yeast manufacturers are putting an awful curse on the carrot crop. They are beginning to look on this simple little denizen of the kitchen garden as a yellow peril and a menace to their corner on vitamins.

You see, carrots are just full of vitamins and beauty specialists and health culturists all over the country are hailing this uncooked rabbit food as the latest scientific first aid to bright eyes and girlish contours.

Can't you remember in the good old days how grandma urged a carrot diet on you as a sure enough guarantee of a peaches and cream complexion. Alas, how you spurned the simple old soul's tip—and also the carrots—little reckoning that an ounce of them would have saved you pounds of them now and a peck of trouble besides.

NOT A SKIN GAME

The merits of carrots go much further than the mere surface, however. There is not only a skin game by any means.

One pound of the little old raw garden vegetable is guaranteed to tune up the whole system, make you sweet and pure—but not too pure, fill you fuller of pep than a goat gland, make superfluous flesh do a tad away and even keep silver threads from among the gold.

It stands to reason carrots ought to be good for the hair. Just look how the Belgian hair thrives on 'em. Anyway the carrot craze means a lot in the life of Miss Lotta Ton nage. The poor slump thing has tried rolling and starving and rubber lingerie. She's had enough electric baths to be a radio, swallowed thyroid and counted calories till she took the count.

She's "daily" dozed" to the strains of music till the strain was too much and eaten Bunky Bread till she was positively crusty. Still the scales climbed when she climbed on.

LOOK AT HER

Now after five weeks and five pounds of carrots in the raw Miss Lotta has actually lost two ounces and a half. Can you blame her for becoming a confirmed carrot roaster? Her mission in life has now centered on snatching carrots unsentimental for the betterment of mankind.

The carrot craze is indeed spreading rapidly over our fair land. Everybody is getting the raw carrot habit. A munch is as good as a lunch. The hand that reaches for the hip pocket nowadays nine times out of ten comes away with a carrot instead of a flask. The nibble is succeeding the tipple. The nibble is succeeding the tipple.

With the ever increasing cry for more carrots it is plain to be seen that the demand will soon exceed the supply. Hence a corner in carrots will mean a corner in Easy Street and modern busy alchemists will find the easiest thing they do is turning carrots into karats.

There is just one sad side to the carrot cure—one side of the pathos amidst the golden glow. Just think of all the poor little bunnies that are hard to be deprived of their favorite fruit.

Tax Bachelors And Give Money To Old Maids

Ramona, Col.—Colonel Robert McReynolds is Ramona's mayor. He's a bachelor. Yet he proposed to tax Ramona bachelors.

$25 each per year, to be paid in advance among the town's spinsters.

Next morning he brought him stacks of letters from old maids, countrywide planning to come to Ramona to live.

These letters' volume is increasing. If so many old maids come, there won't be much money per old maid from the tax.

In council an ordinance has been introduced prohibiting the keeping of tabbies in Ramona. They say old maids love tabby cats. If they can't keep them here, maybe some will stay away, the councilmen argue.

Colonel McReynolds is shocked. He didn't know women were so mercenary. He's an old Indian fighter. "But there were no vamps among the squaws," he says. "A man is helpless now."

The tax is due July 1.

YOUR BABY IN HOT WEATHER Feeding For Health

SUMMER DOESN'T WORRY ME

BY MRS. MAX WEST
Late of the United States Children's Bureau

The one serious danger to the average baby in summer arises from disturbances of the digestion. Some one has said, however, that many of the deaths every summer which are said to be caused by "gastric and intestinal diseases," should really have been attributed to "bad feeding."

In other words, a pitifully large number of these illnesses and many deaths could be prevented if the baby had been fed in the best way from the start. Since a disturbance of this sort may become serious in a few hours in very hot weather, there is greater need than ever for care at this time of year.

Breast-fed babies are far less likely to have an attack of this kind than the one who is fed otherwise, but even a breast-fed baby may become ill if the mother nurses him too often or at irregular hours, or in the night, and especially if she lets him eat solid foods too early.

Bottle-fed babies appear to me most liable to attacks of summer diarrhea, and on this account every mother of a baby who is artificially fed should have the soundest advice.

OUR FIRST YEAR

Chapter 50 — Flapper Foolishness
By a Bride

Jack had left for the office before I reached home, therefore I remained in doubt as to what effect my morning adventure had made upon him.

Jeanne called me up early, to tease me a little:

"Some hectic lover was your Viking, last night! What did Jack say?"

"Nothing! Not a word!"

"Why, then, isn't human! Peg, dear, I've got to get an awful worry off my mind. You were framed, rather Jack was. I told Bart to make Jack furious."

"All yaste on your part! I don't think Jack knows what jealousy means."

After Jeanne had wrung off I reminded myself:

"I guess if Jack cared so awfully much he would at least insist upon knowing what you're up to. Peg Madison! How did he know you were not running away from him this morning?"

Don'tless I would have worked myself into a nice rebellion had not Bonny dropped in about noon.

"I'm wild about that motor trip," she said, "now Bart has agreed to go. I've had so many motor tours with daddy and mother. They get to a spiffy hotel, mother is tired to death, father dead asleep, they never let me go near the ball room," she rattled on. "But with you people, it will be wonderful! But Peg, of

HI-Y MEMBERS TO INVAD "Y" CAMP

Twenty Are Enrolled for Special Conference at Camp Manitowish in August

Almost all of the members of the Hi-Y club of the Y. M. C. A. who were at Camp Manitowish a year ago plan to return this summer. They will attend during the two weeks from Aug. 22 to Sept. 5, a period set aside for a special Hi-Y conference for boys of 15 to 18 years.

More than twenty registrations already have been received by Joseph E. Dennison, boys' work secretary, and more are expected. Several of the younger boys are expected to attend some of the earlier camp periods which open on the dates of June 27, July 11 and 25, Aug. 8 and 22.

This year's registration fee for the Y. M. C. A. outing center at Boulder lake is to be $2, and the camp fee is to be $10 a week. This includes everything but incidentals which the boys provide out of their spending money.

It is expected that transportation costs will be saved most of the boys, because parents of several are going by automobile and will take others with them. Detailed arrangements are to be announced well ahead of the camping dates.

Household Hints

COLORFUL FURNITURE

Chinese red is a color effectively used on willow and porch furniture. It must, of course, be distributed with some discretion in a room, and is most effectively combined with black or a certain shade of green.

CHINTZ FOR CHILDREN

For the small daughter there seems to be no more popular fabric for smocks than chintz. Some of the patterns are large, though the most charming ones are not, and the colors are as gorgeous as can be dyed.

DUST PROOF RAGS

Mesh proof, dustproof bags may be bought for a very small sum and they are invaluable for keeping in good condition the winter clothes you want to put away. Garments may hang in the closet all summer with impunity if they are thus covered.

Adventures Of The Twins

The Sorcerer's Joy

Back in his cave, Twelve Toes the Corcorer, laughed and laughed. He had turned from a goat back into his favorite form of a fiery dragon. And then deciding that he must do something to stop Nancy and Nick on their journey over the Seven Mountains, he changed himself into a sail- or.

And out to sea he went in a boat. Then he searched for a lighthouse.

The rest was easy. All he had to do was to light the big lanterns up in the top, that guided the ships at sea in the night, and turn them around toward the land, where he could see the Seven Mountains in the distance.

Looking through his field glass he saw two small dim specks like little flies on a lamp shade climbing up the Mountain of Glass. He knew at once they were the Twins.

"Oh, ho!" he cried slapping his knee. "All the better, my hearties! I couldn't have found you in a more convenient place."

Then he turned the lanterns still more, so that their long bright beams shone directly on the glass prism. That was what blinded Nancy and Nick, when they lost their way, and that is why Twelve Toes returned to his cave and laughed and laughed.

"One side of the mountain goes down into quicksand, and the other into a field of broken glass," he chuckled as he drank a quart of kerosene.

"All the Magic Feathers and Green Shoes in Fairyland can't help them now. They'll never get the rhinoceroses to Princess Theresa, and I shall have a chance to marry her after all."

"I'll just take another look."

This time his glass showed the two small figures stumbling down the glass mountain to the quicksand.

Twelve Toes laughed harder than ever.

LEARN A WORD EVERY DAY

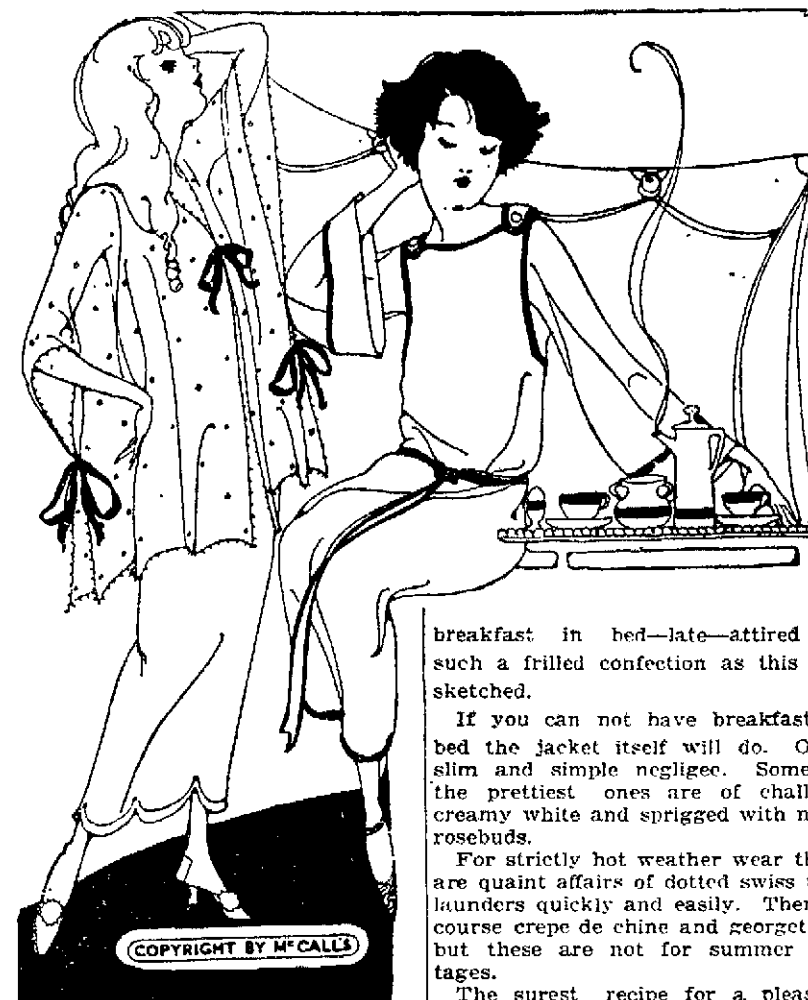

Today's word is PALPABLE. It's pronounced—pal-pa-bul, with accent on the first syllable. It means—capable of being touched or felt; perceptible to the touch; plain, distinct, obvious, readily perceived.

It comes from—Latin "palpare," to feel, to stroke, the Latin word being derived from "palpus," the soft palm of the hand.

It's used like this—"Critics of Attorney General Daugherty's connection with the Morse case say that his supporters' attempt to answer by attacking their motives is a palpable evasion of the issue."

BREAKFAST IN BED

The professional joy dispensers tell us that the way to be happy is to arise with the lark and greet the morning with a cheer. It isn't so. The way to be happy is to have breakfast in bed—late—attired in such a frilled confection as this one sketched.

If you can not have breakfast in bed the jacket itself will do. Or a slim and simple negligee. Some of the prettiest ones are of challis—creamy white and sprinkled with moss rosebuds.

For strictly hot weather wear there are quaint affairs of dotted swiss that launders quickly and easily. Then of course crepe de chine and georgette—but these are not for summer cottages.

The surest recipe for a pleasant morning smile is that one's negligee, not one's spectacles, be couleur de rose. Recommended are rose-colored silks and swiss and sheer batiste, rose dotted taffeta and rose pricked challis.

LIBRARY OFFERS VACATION BOOKS

The Public Library is granting vacation book privileges to its regular borrowers beginning June 1. The rules governing the vacation privileges state that not more than ten books may be issued on one card for the season and only four of these may be fiction.

The books taken out on vacation privileges will be stamped due Oct. 2, 1922 and after that date a fine of one cent a day will be charged on each book. The books may be returned any time before that date, however. The library reserves the right to refuse to lend by this method any books which it seems unwise to take out of the general circulation for so long a time.

If the books are returned by mail, transportation charges must be prepaid by the sender. Borrowers will be asked to give their out of town addresses when they borrow the books.

RAILROAD FLAGMAN HAS GARDEN ALONG TRACKS

Carl Hartkopf, flagman at Durkee, crossing for the last eight years, maintains still his own garden at the east side of his flag shanty. It is a triangular strip of land, not more than 25 feet long which he filled in to a depth of over two feet at the time the government was advising war gardens. For surface soil he used 50 wheelbarrow loads of black earth which he secured when a new sewer was built on a street close to his shanty. The garden this year is planted with potatoes. It is located on the Northwestern Railway Co's right of way, near the main track.

George Roschek and daughter Eleanor of Ladysmith are visiting relatives in Appleton. They are on their way to Joliet, Ill., where Mr. Roschek is now employed.

WILL ANSWER ANY WOMAN WHO WRITES

Woman Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Makes This Offer

Cumberland, Md.—"My mother gave me Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound when I was between thirteen and fourteen years old and was going to school because I suffered with pains and could not rest. I did not have any more trouble after that until I was married, then I always was troubled in my back while carrying a child and could not do my work until I took the Vegetable Compound. I am strong, do all my washing and ironing and work for seven children and feel fine. I always have an easy time at childbirth and what it did for me it will do for other women. I am willing to answer any woman if she will write asking what it did for me."

Mrs. JOHN HEIER, 53 Dulley Street, Cumberland, Md.

Mrs. Heier's case is but one of many we constantly publish recommending Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. She is willing to answer your letter. Write to her,

SECOND FLOOR
CEILING HEIGHT 8'-0"

Successful homes do not depend upon luck or money. They are the product of a plan carefully designed to make the home comfortable, convenient and beautiful within as well as beautiful without.

Here is an economical plan for a five room house possessing the homelike feeling and character of modern English style. It is frame construction with brick veneer for exterior walls, shingle roof, brick chimney and brick terrace. This home can be built comfortably on a lot with 42 foot frontage. It is a type especially good for city or well built up community.

This home can be built to advantage amongst houses that are far more pretensions and expensive. The entrance is a little to one side. It opens into a handsome hall with coat closet and open stairway. The stair hall permits direct access to both kitchen and front door.

A generously proportioned living room with five windows is featured by a hospitable corner fireplace of brick topped with a handsome wood mantle. The wide doorway which separates living and dining rooms and hall make the first floor seem more spacious than it actually is.

The kitchen is planned to save steps and lessen labor. Bed-rooms have cross ventilation and adequate closet space. Little features frequently overlooked in many homes and which have a very strong appeal to the housewife are supplied in abundance. A special broom closet in the kitchen, an ironing board, a linen closet in the upper hall, large storage closets, medicine cabinet and closet with doors in the bathroom, are a few of the numerous conveniences.
